Carry in my heart a dre-eam:

A flag of peace and a land rede-emed,

But in my dream is a wall of wi-re,

Stone and iron, fo-rged in fire.

On-the-wall, a sol-dier stands,

Keeps us out of our-own land,

Bor-ders tear us all a-part,

On the ground and i-in the heart. [rest]

[Stay on d] Without justice, without peace

dumai, dumai, dumai

Just a dream become a be-east

dumai, dumai, dumai

[Stay on d] Where will exile draw the li-ine?

dumai, dumai, dumai

In Is-rah-el or Pa-le-stine

dumai, dumai, dumai

Nisht keyn tse-dek, nish keyn sho-lem

dumai, dumai, dumai

Nor a Kho-lem, gevorn a gol-em

dumai, dumai, dumai

Vos-er folk on a me-di-né,

dumai, dumai, dumai

Say Yis-ro-el, say Pah-les-tiné,

dumai, dumai, dumai

[Repeat last two lines, different notes]
